3rd Traffic Fatality in 1952

DEATH SPURS PLEA FOR CAUTION

Statistics now show three traffic fatalities in Menlo Park in 1952, and this week brought forth another plea from Police Chief George Potter, asking motorists to drive carefully.

"No amount of patrolling, no methods of covering our 'beats,' is enough to prevent such accidents," he said. "It's up to the individual motorist to make sure that he and his auto are in proper shape when they go on the road."

First fatality accident to occur here this year was that which claimed the life of Edward Mitchell, 21, who was killed in a crash at El Camino Real and Ravenswood avenue on April 12.

Second fatality to occur here this year occurred Sept. 5 and took the life of Joyce A. Mizell, 37-year-old mother of three, whose car ran into San Francisquito creek bed. There were no other cars involved in the accident, a police investigation indicated.

Third accident occurred last Thursday and took the life of Mrs. Rose Dell Aquila, 57.

She was hit by an out-of-control car.

Election Coming Nov. 21:

Las Lomitas Citizens Meet to Plan Campaign for $185,000 Bond Issue

A citizens' committee for support of the Las Lomitas School District's proposed $185,000 bond issue, to be the subject of a special election on Nov. 21, will meet tonight at the kindergarten room of the school to discuss plans for the campaign.

The gathering is to convene at 8 p. m.

The bond issue was called two weeks ago by the district's trustees. If the measure is passed, it will allow an immediate start on construction of a four-classroom unit at Las Lomitas, whether or not further state aid to school districts is approved in the Nov. 4 general elections.

Members of the citizens' committee thus far include Eric Heergaard, 31 Berenda way; Mrs. Harry Whitehead, 2040 Cedar avenue; Ellis Womack, 161 Castanya way; Owen Gibbs, 281 Floresta way; Dr. Howard Jones, 2030 Camino los Cerros; John Worsley, 361 Walsh road; Richard Funkhouser, 2100 Santa Cruz avenue.

William Ripley, 3015 Alameda de las Pulgas; Robert Baxter, 1999 Camino los Cerros; W. Turck, Box 10 Alameda de las Pulgas, Atherton; Roy Hills, 346 Walsh road; Dale Smith, 33 Atherton avenue; Mrs. Hester Bonnot, 8 Perry lane.

Mrs. Martin Erreca, 2673 Alpine road; Mrs. Robert Eschen, 2120 Monterey avenue; Mrs. Claude Snellgrove, 1987 Camino de los Robles; Wallace O. Jones, 2145 Sharon road; Mr. and Mrs. James Mack, 464 Selby lane; Sanderson Smith, 2062 Sandhill road; David Botsford, 111 Floresta way and Mrs. Lincoln Norwood, 2020 Sharon road.

If the four-classroom unit can be started late this year or early next year, it will be available when school opens in the fall of 1953, trustees say. It will be built on the Las Lomitas school grounds at Alameda de las Pulgas and Camino al Lago, where crowding is heavy.

There are now about 615 pupils attending the school.

Propositions To Be Discussed

Residents of both Menlo Park and Atherton are invited to attend a general meeting of the Civic Interest League of Atherton tonight, Oct. 16, at Menlo-Atherton high school at which the 24 propositions on the Nov. 4 ballot will be discussed.

Speaker at the meeting, which will start at 8 p. m., will be James Mussatti, general manager of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

Following the talk, in which the speaker will consider both sides of the questions, a period will be devoted to the answering of questions from the audience, according to W. H. Mixter, league chairman.

He extended an invitation to any person interested in learning about the ballot propositions to attend the meeting whether or not he is a member of the Civic league.

Jaycees Map Drive To Get Out Votes

Strategy for an intensive "get-out-the-vote" campaign, now partially underway, was outlined Tuesday night by 16 members of the Menlo Park Junior Chamber of Commerce, gathering for their bi-monthly session.

Placards, according to the report, are now being displayed in local merchants' windows, while sets of auto bumper cards are being prepared, as for the primary. Also on the slate of election "reminders" are the projected series of short ads to be shown at the Park theater.

Other business at the Jaycee's meeting included the election of Gene Doyle as treasurer to replace Roy Senor and a discussion of "narcotics and drugs" by Wes Pomeroy from the San Mateo county sheriff's office.

AUTOS COLLIDE

Automobiles driven by George Hubbard, 23, 45 Amherst, Atherton and Joe L. Arms, 844 Fremont street were involved in a minor crash at Santa Cruz avenue and Curtis street at 6:25 p. m. Oct. 9, police report. There were no injuries

Expectant Mother Unhurt in Crash

An expectant mother, who was a passenger in one of three autos involved in an accident at El Camino Real and Santa Cruz at 8:05 p. m. Saturday, was released from Palo Alto hospital following a checkup.

The woman was Mrs. Marion Feightmeier, 32, 2070 Palo Verde avenue, East Palo Alto. She was a passenger in a car driven by Phillip Rogers, 64, of Palo Alto.

According to police, Rogers, who was eastbound on Santa Cruz avenue, entered the intersection as the traffic light changed. A car driven by Edward William Cook, 41, of San Rafael, northbound on the highway, was started when the light changed and struck the rear of Rogers' auto.

Rogers' car was spun around from the force of the collision, striking a car driven by Maximin Jorat, stopped in the highway's southbound lanes.

Rogers' and Cook's cars were towed away.

Mrs. Feightmeier is expecting a child within a month, police were told.

Chest Drive Falling Far Short of Goal

Community Chest fund drive chairman for Menlo Park Frederick B. Walker yesterday issued a plea to all residents to help make the current canvass a success as figures released from county Chest headquarters revealed that the city had achieved only 10.3 per cent of its quota.

As of the first part of this week, the figures reveal, only $2440 had been "turned in" by canvassers here. The city's quota for the current drive is $23,800.

Other south county localities were apparently experiencing difficulty filling quotas, too:

In Atherton, only $5990 of a $23,000 quota—26 per cent—had been collected; in East Palo Alto, $500, 23.3 per cent of the area's quota, was reported as collected.

The Woodside area showed collections of $2928, 24.4 per cent of the area's quota.

Campaigning here will continue, Walker said, in an effort to raise Menlo Park's quota.

Menlo School Homecoming Set

Saturday is the date set for the twenty-first annual Homecoming of Menlo School and College, President William E. Kratt announced this week.

Four thousand invitations to the school's "old grads" were issued last week by James L. Brainerd, alumni director, and members of both lower school and college faculty will be on hand to greet returnees.

Calendar for the day includes a morning alumni - faculty softball game, followed by a buffet luncheon at noon and an afternoon football game between Menlo and Hartnell J. C. Open house will be held on campus all day, and an alumni reception is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. at the Fairmont hotel.

Fred W. Warren is chairman of the faculty homecoming committee, assisted by Holbrook Bonney, C. A. Connor, James Crooks, Maurice Crosby, Otto Dietrich, Dr. Donovan Fischer, E. H. Hart, Leon Loofbourow, Edward Reighard, John Russell Edgar Weaver and Ralph Weissinger.

School Opening Date Is Delayed

Kavanaugh elementary school won't be ready for occupancy until Dec. 15, owing to delays in obtaining skilled workers, members of the Ravenswood School District board of trustees were told Monday night. Hence, first-through-fourth grades in the district will remain on "double session" until after the first of 1953.

TEACHERS CONFER

TEACHERS REPRESENTING the several districts in the Sequoia High School District area met recently at Menlo-Atherton high school, to plot plans for the Nov. 10 "Business-Education" day co-sponsored by the several school agencies and the area's Chambers of Commerce. Shown going over plans with Nicholas Nugent, vice principal at Menlo Atherton, who is handling arrangements from the "teacher end" of things (second from right) are (standing, left and right) Frank Winnberg and Walt Olson and (seated, left to right) Leon Torrey, Miss Jerry Petzinger, Nugent and Miss Beverley Norlin. George Cleese, Jr., of the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce, is over-all chairman for "B-E" day, in which more than 600 teachers will learn the facts of business operation in the area through first-hand observation. —Recorder photo.

New Kind of:

MOWING MACHINE

"Fences, hedges, mail box and lawn"—in the language of a Menlo Park police report—were "mowed down" (also the language of the report) by an auto assertedly driven by Mrs. Lida Galli, 50, of San Francisco.

The "mowing" took place along Arbor road, near Creek drive, at 2:45 p. m. last Thursday. Mrs. Galli had turned off of the drive and was northbound when she apparently lost control of her car.

Properties on which the assertedly out-of-control auto visited were those of Mrs. J. H. Black, 1090 Creek drive; Dean Jones, 72 Arbor road and Mrs. H. W. Keerigam, 109 Arbor road.

Chamber Hires New Assistant

The Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce's secretary-manager has a secretary.

The new part-time employee is Mrs. Juanita Williams, 415 Encinal avenue, wife of a Stanford engineering student. She has been residing in Menlo Park, with her husband, since the two were married eight months ago.

Mrs. Williams, who heard about the job through a Stanford placement agency, attended Visalia junior college and San Jose State college. She and her husband are permanent residents of the city, she says.

Bonds Open Way For Encinal Expansion Plans

Bids for classroom additions at Encinal school—first units to be financed with monies made available in last week's Menlo Park School District bond issue election — may be called late this month or early next month.

With passage of the bond issue measure, by a margin of more than four to one, district administrators began work toward preparing the remedies, in advance, of what might otherwise result in serious overcrowding of the schools' classrooms.

Meanwhile, district trustees were to meet at 7 p. m. tonight at Central school, to officially canvass the vote. Complete, unofficial returns on the election showed 1040 for the bonds; 250 against.

District Superintendent Mel Homfeld this week gave his reaction to the way the voting went:

"I am extremely pleased," he said, "with the attitude shown by the majority. It in an indication that the people of Menlo Park want good educational facilities for their children."

Improvements will be undertaken at Encinal school, Homfeld said, because crowding is most serious in the eastern part of the district.

Units called for in the district's plans, at Encinal, include six classrooms and a music room, plus auxiliary units.

Meeting Scheduled Nov. 10

School District Trustees to Discuss New Report Card Proposal

Menlo Park Elementary School District trustees have set their Nov. 10 meeting as date for consideration of a new report card system recommended for use here by the district Citizens' School Study committee.

Proposed forms — the ones to be under study at the November meeting— are of two kinds: one for reporting progress through the third grade and the other for fourth through eighth grade pupils.

The latter form is the more complex, giving more detailed information on pupil progress in "skill" subjects, and will be subject of the discussion.

CONFERENCES

Both forms, however, will be used to supplement parent-teacher conferences, to be held early in the school year. The report cards are to be mailed, with mailings "staggered," about January 30 and in June, provided the school district trustees adopt the form for use.

As set up, the fourth-through-eighth grade card, will have terminology designed to give parents a clearer picture of their children's progress than the card previously used.

Symbols on the card, as suggested by the citizens' group, would mean,

"Below class level, but could do better," "below class level," "doing satisfactory work but could do better," "doing satisfactory work and is doing his best," "doing excellent work but could do better," "doing excellent work and is doing his best" and "clearly outstanding for his age and grade, in this subject."

School District Superintendent Mel Homfeld points out that, with such detailed terminology the new cards might give parents a better picture of their child's progress than the older forms of report cards which rate a pupil's work as either "satisfactory" or "unsatisfactory."

OTHER FACTORS

Besides the detailed valuations of pupils' work in "skill subjects"—reading, spelling, arithmetic, English, social studies, music, physical education and health, and penmanship in the case of the "upper grade" report card — it would have space for reporting on "personal growth."

Under this heading, teachers would report on the individual's work habits, social habits and health habits.

There will also be space available for teachers' comments.

Plans for the kindergarten and primary report cards have not yet been completed.

The Other Menlo Park:

Statistics Don't Show How Good Menlo Park --California, That Is--Really Is in Fact

(Sixth and last article of a series.)

In cold statistics, Menlo Park, California, doesn't seem nearly attractive as it does if you live here. When it's "put on paper," it's hard to describe.

That was the experience of Mrs. Bonnie Heard, the City Chamber of Commerce's secretary - manager, when she wrote the following in order to aid in determining the "champion home town" among the six "Menlos" in the United States.

"Menlo Park is a friendly residential community, essentially rural in character and charm," Mrs. Heard begins her letter. "It is situated 28 miles south of San Francisco, on an alluvial plain between the Coast range mountains and San Francisco bay. Homes feature large lawns and gardens and great oak trees throughout the city.

"The city owes its name to the action of two Irish settlers who purchased 1700 acres of the great, sprawling Rancho de las Pulgas in 1854, and named it after their native Menlough in County Galway, Ireland.

The community was originally incorporated in 1874 as the second city in San Mateo county. However, it was unincorporated two years later and remained so until 1927.

PARKING

"Menlo Park does not have or need parking meters. Free offstreet plazas which accommodate hundreds of automobiles are constructed in the very heart of the city.

"Large industrial sites are available just east of the city along the shore of San Francisco bay and many industries have located there in recent years.

"Menlo Park residents earn their livelihoods in occupations carried on from San Francisco to San Jose. Commuters are served by express railroad facilities, the trip to San Francisco taking about 45 minutes.

"Stanford university, adjoining Menlo Park on the south, provides many educational, recreational and athletic events open to the public. Stanford research Institute laboratories and a portion of the university's facilities known as Stanford Village are located in the city.

GOOD SCHOOLS

"Menlo School and College is situated just outside the city limits to the north. There are excellent public, private and parochial schools. There are seven public schools with three more in the construction or planning stage.

"The city recreation program is carried on at two parks and five schools."

Besides the actual, on the ground facilities at hand, Mrs. Heard makes mention of something more ethereal:

"Reception of all bay area television stations is excellent in all parts of the city."

The city's unique professional-administrative zone, too, comes in for mention:

"Linfield Oaks, the only professional - administrative zone of its kind, is to be found in Menlo Park. Such desirable offices as those of Magna Engineering corporation, makers of Shopsmith, Lane publishing company, publishers of Sunset magazine, Allstate Insurace company and American Insurance company are situated there."

Menlo Park's weather, carefully summarized as a set of figures, also indicates something about the town.

"Over a period of 36 years," Mrs. Heard's letter points out, "records show 132 rainy or cloudy days and 233 clear days per year, on the average.

"Summer temperature seldom reaches 100 degrees and rarely drops to freezing during the winter months.

"Prevailing west wind averages six miles per hour. Rainfall averages about 15 inches per year. Daytime average relative humidity is 52 to 62 per cent."

The letter points out that YOUR Menlo Park is by all odds the biggest of the six in the country, with a population of 21,587 (official).

Councilman Named To Taggart Panel

Menlo Park City Councilman Willim Lawson has been named as a member of a non-partisan committee composed of four mayors and 13 city councilmen from all parts of San Mateo county, supporting Democratic candidate Harold F. Taggart for Congress.

Mayor Emilio Cortesi of South San Francisco is chairman of the group.

At 'Village' Forum

About 100 residents of Stanford Village assembled in Menlo Park civic center auditorium last Saturday night, where they attended a forum entitled "An Invitation to Thinking Voters to Exchange Political Punches with Professor Kreps."

Professor Kreps spoke for twenty minutes. The forum, conducted by Mrs. Stewart Gaylor, followed.

Bill Norris and Bill Hagen were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Democrat Women Organize Here

Approximately 135 women, residents of Menlo Park, Palo Alto and Atherton have become members of the Stevenson for President club.

Many of these women are taking an active part in the club's activities, serving at headquarters, typing and telephoning at home and doing precinct and publicity work.

More campaign workers are needed on these and other committees. Interested women should contact the Stevenson-Sparkman club headquarters, 446 Emerson street, Palo Alto or telephone DA 3-2530.

Police Get New Car, Add Motorcycle

Menlo Park this week put into operation a new patrol car and motorcycle, the car replacing a previous one and the motorcycle an additional unit.

The department now has four cars and two motorcycles.

The new car replaces one which was "turned in" after about 150,000 miles of patrolling since its purchase in 1949.

The new motorcycle is equipped with two-way radio; the department's previous "bike" only had a receiver for police calls. It will be assigned for general traffic use.

NO INJURIES

No injuries resulted at 10:30 p. m. Saturday when a car driven by Yernage E. Estevell, 44, of 688 University drive, struck a parked vehicle operated by Domenico Ralevi, 51, of Mountain View. Mrs. Estevell told officers she was headed south on the drive at the time of the mishap. Both cars were driven away.

Las Lomitas Trustees Disapprove District Change

Las Lomitas School District trustees have formalized their disapproval of a proposal to shift a 13-lot parcel of land from Las Lomitas to the Menlo Park Elementary School district, with a resolution passed last Wednesday night.

The action was taken after trustees viewed copies of a petition calling for the redistricting, signed by area residents, which had been forwarded to them by the county school department.

Menlo Park Elementary School District trustees received a similar copy last week, and indicated they "would not oppose" the redistricting.

Final action on the matter, however, must be undertaken by the county board of supervisors.

The Las Lomitas trustees' resolution read:

"Resolved that, because of the study now underway concerning the possible comprehensive redistricting of elementary school districts in San Mateo county, the board of trustees of the Las Lomitas School District does not favor transfer from the Las Lomitas to the Menlo Park District of the area covered by the petition for transfer from 20 families in the area bounded by Santa Cruz avenue, Vine street, and the Menlo Park city limits as delineated in the attachment to the petition."

Hospital Official Gets Recognition

Roscoe T. Sorenson, manager of the canteen at the Menlo Park Veterans' hospital, was recently presented with a bronze plaque, a certificate of award and a cash award for his outstanding administrative work at the hospital.

The awards were made in consideration of the results of a competition in which all VA canteens in the far western states were considered.

Sorenson resides in Palo Alto.

Gives Information To Absentee Voters

County Clerk John A. Bruning has advised that those persons properly registered who will not be here because of absence due to business or other reasons on election day, Nov. 4, or those who are unable to appear at the polls by reason of a physical disability may make application for absentee ballots. The closing date for such applications is Oct. 30 in accordance with the state law.

Each application must be signed personally by the voter requesting same so that signatures may be checked with the registration affidavit.

Application forms may be obtained from the Election Department at the County Court House or from the City Clerk's office in any of the cities.

Action to Tear Down Landmark Is Postpned

Action on a petition requesting razing of an old barn and other structures on the Domby property along Stanford avenue was delayed by the city council last week pending completion of a second report on fire hazard conditions by the Menlo Park Fire District.

A petition describing the structures as a hazard was signed by 31 residents of Palm court and Stanford avenue.

A report from the county health department indicated that the property should be cleaned up, but that insufficient health hazards existed to call for destruction of the buildings, long a landmark and favorite of Peninsula artists.

Mrs. Rose Dell Aquilla Dies of Injuries Incurred in Accident

Funeral services were being held this morning for Mrs. Rose Dell Aquila, Menlo Park woman who died Sunday of injuries sustained in a freak auto accident on Santa Cruz avenue last Thursday noon.

With her death, she became Menlo Park's third traffic fatality of 1952.

Mrs. Dell Aquilla, who was 57, had been a resident of Menlo Park for the past 20 years. Her final home was at 1778 Santa Cruz avenue. She was injured when an apparently out-of-control automobile, operated by Mrs. Alice Bruce, 74, of 670 Newell road, Palo Alto, jumped the curb and rammed her through the front door of a bakery at 626 Santa Cruz avenue.

Falling plate glass as well as the original impact attributed to the multiple fractures and lacerations which she suffered.

She was apparently walking by the store at the time of the accident.

A native of Italy, Mrs. Dell Aquila is survived by her husband, Pasquale Dell Aquila of Menlo Park; a son, Carl, also of this city, and daughters Mrs. Bruna Salvani, Menlo Park; Mrs. Madeline Cossuto, Mountain View; Mrs. Mary Balocco and Mrs. Gertrude Passalacqua of San Francisco.

She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Madeline Schneider of Menlo Park, as well as by 10 grandchildren.

Rosary for Mrs. Dell Aquila was recited Wednesday evening at Roller, Hapgood and Garifoli funeral home, Woodside road, Redwood City.

Requiem mass was to be at St. Raymond's Catholic church, Menlo Park, at 9:30 a. m. today. Interment was to be at Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.

The store through the front of which Mrs. Dell Aquila was hurled was Marcel's bakery, 626 Santa Cruz avenue. Proprietor Marcel Behr estimated damage at $5000.

YES ON PROPOSITION 3

Most controversial of the 23 propositions that California voters will be asked to approve Nov. 4 is Number 3.

This is the proposal to extend property tax exemption, known as welfare exemption, to property used for schools of less than collegiate grade owned and operated by non-profit religious, hospital or charitable organizations.

The Recorder will state its views on candidates and on the other propositions in the next two issues before the election, but because so much misunderstanding has arisen in regard to this one question, we wish to devote this entire column to it.

The Recorder urges a "Yes" vote on Proposition Number 3.

This proposition is not, as many persons feel, a religious issue. It is not pro-Catholic or pro-Protestant or pro-Atheist. Schools operated by all religious denominations would be exempted under the proposals, as would schools operated by charitable and hospital organizations for handicapped children, such as those suffering from cerebral palsy.

As it now stands, parents who wish to send their children to such schools first pay their regular share of property taxes to support our public schools, then pay also to operate the special schools of their choice, and in paying a property tax on the school itself, they pay again to help operate the public schools.

No other state in the union asks such a double tax load of parents.

Opponents of the measure base their arguments on two main points: first, that removing the property from tax rolls would increase the burden on other property. Certainly this is true, but the increase over the whole state would amount to an estimated total of only some $700,000, a drop in the bucket beside the annual cost of operating the public schools of the state: some $650,000,000.

The second major point of the opposition is that the measure violates the Constitutional principle of separation of Church and State.

This is simply untrue.

The principle of separation of Church and State is a guarantee that all men shall be free to worship as they choose, without any one Church receiving the favor of official recognition and support from the Federal government. The schools of all churches would be equally benefited by this measure—Catholic parochial schools do not even represent a majority of those affected. We do not hear that tax exemption for the property of churches themselves is a violation of the Constitution, nor do we hear this cry in connection with exemption of colleges such as Santa Clara (Catholic), Occidental (Presbyterian), Whittier (Quaker), and many others.

Because the additional tax burden involved is so slight—the help to schools for cerebral palsied children alone would, in our estimation, be worth the $700,000—and because the proposal is fair and reasonable, The Recorder wholeheartedly recommends a "Yes" vote on Proposition Number 3.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess, regular author of this column, this week is attending a conference of the League of California Cities, of which he is a director, in Coronado. Paul Speegle, radio executive and city planning commissioner, "sits in."

Your City's Business:

A City Planner Learns a Lot In a Few Months

By PAUL SPEEGLE
(Member, Menlo Park Planning Commission)

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid, etc.

The quick brown fox jumps over the, etc.

Haven't used the typewriter for so long I thought I'd better try some exercises. See if I've got ten fingers! Yup! And not only do I have the normal complement of pinkies; I am also in possession of a little story I'd like to share with you at this moment.

Something over a year ago Mayor Burgess asked me if I would like to become a member of the Planning Commission. Eager to serve the community in which I live and am trying to bring up a family I said, "Yes!"

It's such a tiny word! Only three letters! But before I said it I should have had my beautifully sculptured oblong head examined . . . for possible flaws.

Never, in my wildest imaginings did I ever think that by simply saying "Yes!" I would become an alleged thief, perjurer, liar, potential murderer and a sly subverter of all things American. But I did! And I want to tell you it came as something of a shock to my wife and children to find out they had been squandering their love and affection on such a fourteen-carat scoundrel.

For the last four months of the public hearings on the Menlo Park Master Plan I and my eminently patient and able colleagues on the Planning Commission have been the subject of a campaign of invective that would be envied by a third-rate political ward-heeler. We have been sitting ducks for public defamation of a high, or perhaps I should more appropriately say, low order.

It has, for me, been a new but far from refreshing experience. If the truth be known, these last four months have made me suspect our prided American institution of fair play. I have watched hysteria take the place of reason. I have witnessed half-truth and evasion take the place of fact and forthrightness. I have looked on while a few individuals wrapped themselves in the American flag and imputed to the Planning Commission the foulest kind of totalitarian practices.

Occasionally, but all too frequently, opponents of the Plan would speak out calmly, objectively, intelligently. They offered counter proposals springing from sound and reasoned thinking. They seemed to appreciate the fact that the members of the Commission were seeking, not demanding, a method to meet the growing future of Menlo Park. Their appearances made you almost forget the unprincipled viciousness that had gone before.

But that wasn't as much fun as calling the Commission a bunch of conniving bums. You don't get too much applause just being a lady or a gentleman. Gotta call somebody a thief! That's the way to lay 'em in the aisles. Call somebody Un-American. Wow! Listen to 'em cheer!

Yes, dear reader, it has been an experience!

I may not be much wiser than I was four months ago, but I'm a lot sadder!

Recorder Lists Papers Handled

The San Mateo county recorder's office handled a total of 6554 papers during the month of September, according to Ruth Kirste, holder of that office. A total of 5186 papers were handled during the same period last year.

The office recorded 191 marriages last month, as compared with 130 during September, 1951.

Letters to the Editor:

After '72 Years' as Steady Democrat, He Isn't Changing Now, Says Reader

Editor,
The Recorder:

Many people in Menlo Park have got the idea that I have changed my registration from Democrat to Republican because I allowed the South San Mateo County Council of Republican Women to put their (campaign headquarters) trailer on my lot at 705 Santa Cruz avenue, but that is not so.

I have been a Democrat for 73 years and feel the Republicans need a little more encouragement as they have been out of office for 20 years.

I feel like Vice President Barkeley: When a newspaperman asked him if the Democrats "played ball" with the Republicans he said, "Yes, they play ball with them but seldom let them come up to bat."

As for changing my registration, I feel like Ike Eisenhower did when asked by President Truman to run for president on the Democratic ticket. He said he could not do that as he had been a Republican all his life . . .

As for the criticism of the Democrats by the Republicans, I refer you to what Wendell Willkie, who ran against Roosevelt in 1940, on the Republican ticket, said when he was asked after he was defeated if he meant all the mean things he said about the Democrats.

He said, "Heck no, it was just political hot air," and that's how I feel about the Republican criticism of Stevenson now.

And anyway, why should we change when we are having the best time the country ever had? More people are working, getting bigger salaries than ever before; everybody has autos, radios and television, washingm machines — and also fur coats.

Mark J. Loughlin.

The Recorder always welcomes letters from its readers on any subject of public interest. Within the limitations of available space, all such letters will be published as received so long as they do not violate decency and good taste and provided they are signed.

Thanks Community

Editor,
The Recorder:

On behalf of the Menlo Park Fire District's Firemen's association, I wish to thank all members of the community who so generously supported this year's Firemen's ball, held last Saturday night at Burgess Park gym.

It is only because of the continued interest of the members of the community, that it is possible for the Association to adequately finance its Widows' and Orphans' fund. The importance of this fund to the firemen and to their families cannot be overestimated.

In return for this support, we shall endeavor to continue presenting an Annual Ball which will be worthy of support, and which will provide members of the community with an eening of pleasure.

Deputy Chief
George Carter,
Dance Chairman.

Another Reply

Editor,
The Recorder:

In Mr. Towle's letter of September 25th, he seems to have a distorted sense of balance in evaluating the Proposed Master Plan. He extols its virtues, not by benefits, but by attacking its opponents, and by dire consequences if we don't have it.

I agree with him that it is a negative inside-out thing, which would not benefit the people who would forfeit their property, nor the land owners who would receive the forfeited property for parking, nor the merchants in the fenced-in mallarea. Just who does want it?

Its constriction of the commercial area would lessen the tax revenue, or if the tax appraisal were raised to make up this revenue, it would put our merchants out of the running in the race with our more expansive potential neighbors.

Also, for instance, if only half of someone's lot were confiscated, the owner would have to pay what he receives for that half as assessment for the other half, then give a big slice off the front for street widening, pay for that work himself, then slice his house down the middle or move it off and buy another lot for his home.

Homes at present require a lot of money. This would also have to come out of his pocket, or sell what remains of the business half in order to buy a home. So what is so Masterful about all that?

I hope Mr. Towle will write another letter and tell us what he said in the last paragraph of his letter of Sept. 25th.

Menlo Park Has Healthy Month

Only a single communicable disease—one incidence of tuberculosis—was found in Menlo Park during September, the San Mateo county health and welfare department reports in its regular monthly bulletin.

The summary, indicating a relatively "healthy" month as far as communicable diseases were concerned throughout the county, showed eight cases of communicable diseases reported from East Palo Alto and one case from Woodside. No communicable diseases were reported from Atherton.

In East Palo Alto, communicable sicknesses reported included three cases each of chicken pox and poliomyelitis, and two cases of whooping cough.

The disease reported in Woodside was diagnosed as mumps.

Stanford Student Faces Charges

Fred W. TenEyck, Stanford student whose home is in Long Beach, may have had to explain more than just a reckless driving charge in Menlo Park police court last night.

He may have had to explain an uneraseable obscenity which, officers say, appeared on the ticket about the time he signed it.

TenEyck was arrested at 1:25 a. m. Oct. 12, on Willow road. Besides reckless driving, he is accused of passing another car on the wrong side.

100 YEARS EXPERIENCE
Harnessing the water power of the Sierra

1852 —Water was first put to work in Sierra gold mines served by South Yuba Water Co., a P. G. and E. parent.

1889 —Water power became electric power in this early Electra plant. Former hydraulic miners helped build it.

1949 —Getting the most out of water power, this compact new Electra has five times the capacity of the old plant.

All through the Sierra country you'll see P. G. and E. hydro-electric plants taming mountain water to bring power to you. Here, as elsewhere on our system, careful management and constantly improved efficiency have helped reduce electric rates far below the U. S. average. Today you pay $2.50, on the average, for electricity that would have cost $20 in 1889. This century of P. G. and E. experience has made good electric and gas service truly cheap throughout Northern and Central California.

Still Looking for Win:

MAHS Varsity, Looking Better While Losing, Prepares for South San Francisco Friday

Coach Ray DeJong's spirited "never say die" South San Francisco high school Warriors will provide the opposition tomorrow night as Menlo-Atherton high school's Varsity gridders make their third bid for a first victory.

Coaches Howard Costello and Don Dorfmeier have had their charges turned back in the two previous encounters, dropping a 19-0 practice game to Los Gatos and wilting before a fighting Lincoln aggregation, 44-7.

The northerners didn't play a pre-season practice game as they were involved in the very successful "football jamboree" at Burlingame. In one quarter against Lincoln, the South City squad managed at 6-0 victory, but was shut out by small margins in its quarters against Burlingame and Serra.

After spotting San Jose 12 points and playing an extremely ragged first quarter, the Warriors got on the track in their PAL opener last week and posted a 25-12 victory.

The locals won the first quarter, 7-6, last week and looked like a much better club than their adversaries. M-A wilted, however, in the second period and left the field at halftime trailing 19-7. Mistakes on the part of the Bears set up Lincoln TD's in the second half.

MISTAKES TELL STORY

Like the mistakes that cost last year's class C and D basketballers many games to inferior opponents, the M-A Varsity miscues and usually be attributed to inexperience. One bad play call, a bad exchange and a fumble, and three poor defensive maneuvers on Lion passes were all turned into touchdowns. None of these mistakes would have been made by an experienced team.

Actually, a great improvement was shown over the Los Gatos game offensively. The Bears put together several drives, but all bogged down except for their first period march.

Against Los Gatos, the locals could only once string two first downs together. Defensively, however, the locals, although showing flashes of sharp play at times, weren't very impressive.

There was certainly nothing to match their second half effort against Los Gatos, which found M-A stopping the Wildcats twice when the winners had first downs and goal to go. Tackling was better, however.

SCRIMMAGE

Costello ran his charges through an hour scrimmage Monday after a long line scrimmage and a tackling and punt returning drill for the backs and ends. More headbumping was slated for Tuesday and Wednesday with a possible reserve scrimmage and defensive drill set for today.

Notable in Monday's workout was the moving of fullback Allen Feinstien, who rambled 28 yards for the Bears' lone score against Lincoln, to left halfback. This may be a permanent change, as it would give Costello a chance to utilize the running ability of both his fullbacks, Feinstien and Bob Ferguson. Feinstien is also useful as a blocker.

It was still not known Monday whether or not halfback Dick D'Oliva, tackle Jack Fisher and fullback Joe O'Halloran would be eligible for play this season.

The boys all transferred from Serra and under California Interscholastic federation rules they are all ineligible for one semester because they lived in this district but attended a school not in this district and then transferred here. Special consideration was being given the case, however, because of the circumstances of a new school and its first varsity team, etc. They were all ineligible for the Lincoln game, however.

Menalto Choir Sets Yule Event

A section of Handel's "Messiah" will be the featured presentation of the Menalto Symphonic choir's annual Christmas concert, to be given Dec. 12 at the Palo Alto women's clubhouse, Palo Alto.

Charles B. Westlund of Menlo Park, director of the choir, has announced that the following persons will appear as soloists: Mary McNair, soprano; Ida Mae Thompson, contralto; Westlund, tenor; Edward Jewett, bass.

The Kincaid trio will accompany the chorus in the "Messiah" selection.

The Palo Alto Women's clubhouse is situated at Homer avenue and Cowper street in that city.

Advanced Folk Dance Class Has Openings

Openings still exist for those who wish to join the city recreation department-sponsored advanced folk dance class which meets Wednesdays at Encinal school multi-purpose room.

The group is under instruction of Virgil Morton, formerly of Chang's International folk dancers of San Francisco. Starting time is 8 p. m.

Square Dancers Call Aspirants

Menlo Park rec department-sponsored beginners' square dance group, which meets each Thursday at 8 p. m. at Central school, still has openings, Director Fred Parson announces.

Full information may be obtained by calling the recreation department at Burgess park gym, DA 2-1727.

Signup Is Open

Folk dancers may still register for the Menlo Mixers intermediate class which meets Wednesday evenings at Burgess park gym, Menlo Park Recreation Director Fred Parsons reiterated this week. The group began a new, 14-week instruction "quarter" this month.

Instructor for the group, which convenes at 8 p. m., is Fred Slater. Slater has been instructor for the Mixers since the group's inception more than three years ago.

School Football Play Begins At Nealon Park

Hillview school's touch softball teams got off to a fast start in Menlo Park Elementary School district league play in opening games last Friday. The Westmenlovians A loop team dropped their Central school counterparts 34-0; while two Hillview teams battled to a 13-7 final score in B league play at Nealon park.

In the bottom two games of the afternoon a Fremont school C league team downed Encinal C's 6-2 and an Encinal D league team bounced a Fremont team 20 to 0.

A schedule of remaining games of the leagues appears elsewhere on this page.

El Camino Players Ready Presentation

Rehearsals are well underway for El Camino Players' production of "Death of a Salesman," Arthur Miller's prize winning drama, which will be presented the first two weekends in November in Sequoia high school. This dramatic hit won the Pulitizer prize, and also the New York Drama Critics' Circle award the year it was first produced in New York.

As the first little theater group in the Bay area to present this drama, El Camino Players is waging an intensive ticket campaign in conjunction with the annual season ticket sale, and advance sales, according to Norma Allardyce, publicity director, already indicate widespread interest.

Tickets are available from Helen Salkin, ticket manager, and all business firms who wish to be listed on the Players' program cover are urged to contact Mrs. Salkin, EM 6-6171, immediately.

Woodhaven Registration Shows Summer '52 Jump

The results of Woodhaven summer registration are now in, and indicate that 296 girls from the Sequoia area council attended the established camp during vacation months. That means there were 44 more girls this year than last, including 276 intermediate Scouts and 20 senior Scouts.

If any of the girls lost items at the camp, they are encouraged to look for them at the Woodhaven "Lost and Found," located at the Girl Scout office, 603 Hamilton street, Redwood City. The articles, however, must be claimed before next Wednesday, October 15, for then they will be given to a charity organization.

Schedule Given For School Loop Touch Football

Following is the complete schedule of remaining games to be played in the Menlo Park Elementary School District touch football league. All games are to be played at Nealon park; two fields have been "layed out" there.

All games are played Fridays; first games start at 3:45 p. m.; second games seart at 4:35 p. m. on each field.

(Numbers after teams indicate that a given school has more than one team playing in a given division of the circuit; there are four such divisions: A, B, C and D. Players' eligibility is established according to age and grade.

BACK FROM TRIP

The Menlo Maulers, more commonly known as the San Francisco 49ers, return home the Sunday after next for a two-game stand before their final trio of road games.

The locals are the only team that have not yet been beaten in either league or exhibition games this season. Buck Shaw's charges have now run up a win streak of 14 consecutive games.

After their return from a so-far very successful road trip, the local professionals host Dallas Oct. 26 and tangle with the ChiBears in a return match on Nov. 2.

Down To Earth:

Fall Is the Season in Which to Start Dealing With 'Problem' Plantings

By TERRY LEE

Fall is certainly the time to dig up old gardens, rearrange and replant.

All the plants and shrubs you wished you owned last year can be planted now. In fact, your spring garden is dependent on the energy you expend this month. The problem of a windbreak, fence cover, hedge, ornamental accent or what have you, can be solved with a shrub, vine, or tree set in before the rains.

There are two problems that have faced me every year, and I am going to solve them with one planting. The problems were: a windy corner, and, the need of attractive stakes to support tall flowers.

The solution is a planting of bamboo.

These handsome tree-like plants thrive in our mild winters and rich soil. Actually they are a perennial grass, native to Asia and America.

There are more than 200 species, varying from huge trees to small canes. Some spread by underground roots, but those suitable for ornamental planting form tufts or clumps.

It takes about two or three years to thoroughly establish a clump.

The graceful stems, dainty branches, soft green leaves and careless symmetry is a bold contrast to heavy fence. Perhaps the most common in Arundinaria nobilis, which gets to be 20 feet tall, and A. japonica, which stays around 10 feet.

NEEDS FERTILIZER

A young plant needs a well-drained spot which has been prepared with rotted manure or commercial fertilizer.

It needs plenty of water, especially the first three months. Hence, October and November are the best months for planting.

A mulch of grass is helpful in retaining water and preventing frost damage to the young roots. Cultivation is not necessary after the first year.

Although canes attain their full diameter when only a few inches high, they do not acquire maximum strength and durability until the third year.

It is a good idea to mark the canes with india ink to determine their age.

Bamboo in its natural green state makes the best and most inconspicuous stake possible. The stakes will, of course, gradually turn brown, which is still attractive. They can be painted green, if desired.

Canes for fishing purposes should be cut in the winter and allowed to dry in a shady place for almost a year. That part appeals to me, too!

GARDEN CALENDAR

Week of Oct. 14

Water deeply the soil around chrysanthemums and asters that are in bloom or bud. This is no time to wait for the rain to do your work. Stake up these plants if they are top-heavy.

Dogs can certainly give your lawn a quick spot of color if they pay you an early morning visit. The only remedy is to soak the spot with a lot of water, thus leaching out the extra nitrogen.

• • • •

Be sure to rake up leaves and clear the garden of old plants. They are a host to insects and a fine home for snails. Don't forget all those lawn jobs—weeding, spiking, raking, feeding and reseeding. This is also the best month for putting in a new lawn.

• • • •

The California Agriculture Bulletin this month recommends a new insecticide called Malathon. It is allied to parathion and TEPP, but is much less toxic to warm-blooded animals. It is very effective against soft scale, spider mites and aphids on ornamentals.

While working—on the job or around home—telephone men find these glasses virtually eliminate eye injuries

SAFE SIGHT | Their vision may be perfect, but most telephone men wear glasses now—special safety glasses that look like ordinary ones

Next time you see a group of telephone men at work, take a second look. Chances are you'll notice they're wearing glasses, perhaps in several different styles. A coincidence? No—for most telephone men now wear individually-fitted safety glasses, and experience has shown that they drastically reduce the danger of eye injuries. That's because they're rimmed, specially treated glasses that won't shatter or break under severe impact. In the last 2 years, they've been issued to some 20,000 Pacific Telephone men as a key part of our Eye Protection Program. And this program is actually only one part of the company-wide safety campaign that has made telephone jobs among the safest in the nation.

Far above the ground, this cable-splicer is completing an aerial splice. Looks hazardous, doesn't it? But the fact is, he's a lot safer than the average pedestrian crossing a busy street. The "messenger strand" from which his work platform is suspended will support a weight far in excess of the safety requirements. His glasses, safety belt, gloves, tools and methods of working are all carefully designed to guard his safety. And, of course—like telephone people everywhere—he observes the familiar Bell System creed: No job is so important and no service is so urgent that we cannot take time to perform our work safely. We think it's a good creed—especially important to us, to you and to the nation in these critical times.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

Perhaps the best way to illustrate how low telephone rates are today is to compare our prices with those of other things you use every day—food, for instance. If the price of coffee, for example, had gone up no more, since 1940, than average telephone rates in Pacific Telephone's territory, you'd be able to buy coffee today for about 29 cents a pound.

George Dickson Clark III, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Clark Jr. of 39 Faxon road, Atherton, volunteered for minority enlistment (until 21 years of age) in the US navy through the San Mateo navy recruiting substation, announces Edward Shalkowski, navy recruiter for this county.

He is now undergoing recruit training at the recruit training school at San Diego, for an 11 weeks' course of instruction.

He will be assured of training in a line for which he is best fitted as a result of aptitude tests given during recruit training, Chief Shalkowski says, followed by instruction in schools and on the job training in the profession that he has chosen.

Bid Opening Nears On School Project

Bids on the Ravenswood School District's Suburban park school are to be opened a week from tonight.

Plans call for a nine-room school to be built by the district between Bayshore highway and Flood park, if funds are available. Building specifications call for alternates, however, in case contractors' cost estimates are high.

The school, when completed, will serve only Suburban park, in which there are 250 homes, and adjacent parts of Belle Haven school district which are west of the highway.

Pay Raise Studied For City Employees

City Manager C. L. Longson is now studying the city's budget with an eye to discovering what lee-way there is for a possible 5 per cent pay raise for city employees.

This was revealed in answer to a query from Councilman Michael L. Belangie at Tuesday night's meeting of the city council. Belangie asked if such a wage increase was possible within the limits of the present budget in view of the fact that, he said, it seemed to be increasingly difficult to secure competent employees for vacancies on the city payroll.

"Whatever You Do - Vote YES on 2"

OUR SCHOOLS ARE IN TROUBLE! Because of the inflation, soaring birth rate, and huge out-of-State population increase since the end of the War, most school districts in California today just don't have enough money to make ends meet!

PROPOSITION 2 IS THE ANSWER. Proposition 2 gives school children and taxpayers both a break by increasing the State's share of school support—thus keeping our schools open without increasing the tax burden on homeowners.

WE ALL WANT BETTER SCHOOLS. We may differ deeply on election day over candidates and other ballot issues, but we all agree our children's educational needs must be met. That's why Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers, all say: Whatever you do—

Vote "YES" on Proposition 2

Premiere in this Area:

Youth Concert Slated Sunday at Palo Alto HS

Its first concert in this area will be presented Sunday by members of the California Youth Symphony association, an aggregation of some 60 young people from up and down the Peninsula. The performance has been set for 2:30 p. m. in the Palo Alto high school auditorium.

Featured soloist on the afternoon program will be Keith Vernon, French horn player, who will render Mozart's "First Concerto for Horn" in D minor, with orchestral accompaniment.

The San Mateo high school choir, under the direction of Hubert A. Dunn, will sing the choral number from the Cecil Forsythe Suite of "Alice in Wonderland." Harpist Beverly Bellows, also of San Mateo high school, will present solo interludes in "Malaguena" and the suite.

Additional numbers in the program will be the "Raymond Overture" by Ambrose Thomas and Symphony Number 8 in B minor by Franz Schubert.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased in advance at Peninsula music stores, may be obtained at the door or may be reserved by calling DA 3-6010.

Rehearsals for the Youth Symphony began this March, under the baton of Aaron Sten, maestro for the Peninsula Symphony orchestra.

In the words of Martin J. Ness, president of the California Youth Symphony association, the organization was founded on the principle that appreciation of good music and art is essential, and that parents and citizens are responsible for the provision of such an environment for their youngsters.

Young musicians from Menlo Park in the group include Maureen Brady and Gerry Rinefret, violinists, and Betty Jane Caqthron, oboe player. Phyllis and Rita Watson, also violinists, are members from Palo Alto.

Joseph Maloney Weds RC Lass In Sunday Rites

Joseph C. Maloney of Menlo Park took Serafina (Sally) Faia as his bride in a late afternoon ceremony held at Our Lady of Mount Carmel church in Redwood City.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Joseph Faia, wore a lovely gown of white slipper satin, with the bodice and sleeves overlaid in chantilly lace. The skirt fell into a cathedral-length train, fashioned with a panel of lace to the hemline, and the fingertip bridal veil was held in place by a scalloped tulle cap trimmed with seed pearls.

Sally carried a shower bouquet of seven kinds of flowers—her favorites. They included her birth flower, the traditional lily-of-the-valley, orange blossoms, which her mother had had at her wedding; gardenias, white roses, a sprinkling of forget-me-nots and a large white orchid.

Virginia Di Franco, maid-of-honor, was dressed in blue brocaded taffeta, trimmed with net and featuring a tulle stole. Her headpiece was of scalloped net, and her bouquet comprised pink roses, shaded from deep to pastel.

At 7 o'clock in the evening, guests were invited to attend the reception in Carpenters' hall, Redwood City. The table bearing the wedding cake had been decorated by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Frank Di Franco, and the cake itself was fashioned after an idea of the bride. Entirely made of fruit, the cake was topped with a sugar replica of the new Mount Carmel church.

Sally, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Faia of Redwood City, attended Sequoia Union high school, as did her husband.

Joseph is the son of Mrs. Frances Maloney, treasurer of the city of Menlo Park.

P-TA's and Lions Plan Oct. 31 Fete

Oak Knoll, Hillview and Fremont school P-TA's are joining forces with the Menlo Park Lions' club to present a Halloween party for their youngsters Friday, Ocober 31 at Hillview.

At 7 p. m., kindergarten children through second graders will don their witches' costumes, their weird masks and their funny hats to form a parade, which will be followed by the award of prizes for the "best dressed," entertainment and refreshments.

The younger classes will make way at 8 p. m. for the third through eighth graders, who will then form their parade, and continue an evening of fun until 9:30 p. m. Parents are cordially invited to view the display of costumes, but the entertainment is for "children only."

Planning the Halloween event for Oak Knoll are Mrs. James Allio and Richard Johnson, principal; for Fremont, Mrs. James Black and Homer Alderman, principal; for Hillview, Mrs. Guy Plaisted and Paul Stofer, principal.

FATHER'S NIGHT AT THE MENLO PLAY CENTER

RETURN SALVAGE

Parents of Brentwood and Ravenswood schoolchildren are requested to return the bags full of salvage by tomorrow. The schools, under the joint auspices of their P-TA's, have been running the week-long salvage drive, destined to benefit the funds of both associations.

Papas Look over MP Play Center

About 50 fathers went back to nursery school last week. They tried out the Lilliputian chairs. They smeared themselves and their art paper with finger paint. They practised dish-drying at the toy sink. And they even found time to stow away the 57 varieties of food prepared by the mothers, under chairmanship of Mrs. Ralston Harvey.

The evening get-together was held by members of the Menlo Play center, to acquaint fathers with the nursery facilities and to acquaint all the parents with each other.

The center, a cooperative preschool located in Kirk house behind the Presbyterian church, is open four mornings a week from 9 a. m. to 11:45 a. m. Children are divided into two age groups, 3 to 4 and 4 to 5 years, each meeting twice a week.

Approximately one morning in every two and a half weeks is required from the mothers to aid in supervision, and four mothers take the turn together.

Mrs. Alden Smith, director of the facility, conducts a parent education course at Menlo-Atherton high school every second and fourth Wednesday. This class, entitled "child development," is a "must" for all parents in the program, since the center is sponsored in part by the M-A adult school.

For further information on the nursery, Mrs. Jerome Rubin, DA 5-4193, may be contacted.

Castilleja Inaugurates A Duo of "Firsts"

More than 50 mothers of Castilleja students met last week in the school chapel to formulate plans for the organization of their first mothers' club. Mrs. Douglas Carver of Woodside, representing the third generation of Castilleja school-goers, was named to chairman the group until election of officers.

Mrs. Carver, whose mother as well as herself was graduated from the Palo Alto school, now has her oldest girl in kindergarten there.

FASHION SHOW

First official action of the club will be the hostessing—upon an invitation of the lower school girls—at the youngsters' fashion show to be given this afternoon at 3 p. m. in the gymnasium.

The show will feature an array of sub-teen outfits, from pajamas to party dresses, borrowed from a Palo Alto children's shop. The models, all lower school pupils, will be directed by Miss Elizabeth Cook from the school faculty.

Sandra Wehe, Susie Levitas, Susan Scott, Cherry Brill, Sally Grover, Jean Titus, Lynn Connable, Linda Heider, Christine Harris, Barbara Gros, Diana Sherman, Jean Dougall, Maria Romanoff, Susan Browne.

Eleanor Sultan, Mary Davis, Claire Kendrick, Anita Sultan, Patsy Hunter, Eugenia Weltner, Sandy Wilson, Tina Howard, Christy Friedman, Susan White, Bonnie Jean Russell, Susan Barron, Beth Rosener and Pamela Floyd.

Following the "main event"—first of its kind to be given at Castilleja—the youngsters will serve cookies and punch on the circle for everyone, assisted by a committee of lower school girls' mothers.

As for the mothers, their next group meeting has been scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, November 11, in the chapel, when adoption of a constitution and bylaws will be discussed.

At the first gathering last week, a representative committee of five women had been chosen to formulate the club constitution (which will contain, among other things, the second Tuesday of every month meeting date).

FORMULATORS

The women include Mrs. Fred A. Titus of Menlo Park, Mrs. Alexander Eisenberg of Woodside, Mrs. O. B. Barry of Palo Alto, Mrs. Reid Lockhart of Los Gatos and Mrs. S. B. Galbraith of Los Altos.

Grange Meet Tuesday To Boost Membership

A combination social and booster night has been planned for next Tuesday by members of the East Palo Alto Grange. A pot-luck dinner at 6:30 p. m. in the EPA American Legion hall will start off the meeting, which will be followed by the reading of an address by National Grange Master Hershel Newsom and a "mixer."

Mrs. Eric Davies will represent the local Grange at the State convention in Santa Barbara next week.

Tuesday night at Ravenswood Recreation association session, a check for $150 was donated to the Rec center from the Grange. The check resulted from the organization's feature exhibit of potatoes in the recent San Mateo county Fiesta.

Mills Club to Hear Election Issues Tonight

Members of the Palo Alto area Mills club will hear a discussion of current campaign issues tonight, when Proctor Jones, Republican, meets rhetorically with Stuart Hughes, Democrat, at 8 p. m. in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul H. Reinhardt, Waverly street.

Husbands of Mills alumnae are invited to attend the meeting.

Also on the agenda is the introduction by Mrs. Robert Nadeau of Menlo Park, president, of her 1952-1953 committee chairmen and board members.

'Dames' Section Set

First fall meeting of the home arts and crafts section of Stanford Dames will be held Thursday night, October 23, at 8 p. m. in the upper lounge of the women's clubhouse on campus.

Youth Fellowship Program Goes Into Active Ninth Year

Once upon a time nine years ago, Mrs. Don Emerson Hall, wife of the minister of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church, initiated a program of youth activities called the "Wednesday night Youth Fellowship."

Today the evening program for young people, scheduled from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m., encompasses nearly 200 students from junior and senior high school. Every year since, 1943, when there were 30 youngsters, 'teenagers have proven glad and proud and eager to bring around their friends —now the Fellowship hall is fair to bursting at the seams every Wednesday night.

Mrs. Hall, who at first did all programming and cooking, felt that the church should provide a happy, as well as a spiritual time, for its children. The minister's wife had a good background for her undertaking, too, having done similar work with young people down south.

FIRST AIDE

The first assistant to come to Mrs. Hall's aid was Mrs. Harry (Olga) Straver, who then had a 'teenage girl participating in the fellowship program. Mrs. Straver can still be found cooking and washing dishes in the vast kitchen, even though her daughter has since been graduated from college and now teaches school.

Besides Mrs. Straver, there are several other volunteers who come regularly to the Wednesday night programs to help in many ways. They include:

Mr. and Mrs. John Crimp and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoyt, directors of the high school department of the fellowship; Eddie Edwards and Mrs. E. M. Powell ,who direct junior high activities.

Staffing the kitchen are Miss Victoria Louda, overall supervisor; Mr. and Mrs. Straver, Mrs. Migonette Miller, Mrs. Myrtle Reymers, Mr. and Mrs. Les Sleeper, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Secrest, Mrs. Chalmer Mills, Mrs. George Terhune, Mrs. Lewis Long, Mrs. Leo Varty, Mrs. Francis Johnson, Mrs. Guy Plaisted, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. Charles Burgess, Mrs. Robert Coate, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Goodlive and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson.

SUPERINTENDENTS

Superintendents of the high school section are Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Wear while Mrs. Carol Torell is superintendent of the junior high department.

Fellowship hall is divided into two rooms for the program; one room is occupied by the junior high school students, and the other, by the seinor high youth. 'Teenagers form their lines for dinner at 5:45

'Teen Talk

By MELINDA PERCY
DA 3-9975

"A good time was had by all; at the annual Firemen's Ball!" (I'm a poet and don't know it!) The dance was held last Saturday night at the Burgess gym in MP, which was literally overflowing with people.

Young un's from Belmont to San Jose were represented at the dance, with Notre Dame, Menlo-Atherton, Palo Alto High, Bellarmine, Stanford and San Jose state students spotted waltzing to the strains of Sal Vance's orchestra.

Local students glimpsed included Mary Jane Heinrich, Dell Boiccogogne, Joe Whitlock, Judy Gehring, Joanne Elliott, Clarisse Watkins, Alyce Mae Cleland, Bill Christie, Ginger McCoy, Adrian Joseph, Sue Severin, Bill Mills, Sue Clark, Horace Siino, Sue Kennedy, Paul Brown, Georgia Lowder, Sherry Manchester, Phil Austin, Gordon Baker, Louise Smith, Brad Stieger, Teddy Grindle, Bill Gibbs, Barbara Nearon, Melinda Percy, Blaine Huntsman, Rae Allard, Jull Ann Jensen, Don Holland, Doris Deal, Nan Babb, Gordon Head, Pat Gallagher, Kevin Gilroy, Colesse Harvey and Bonnie Dini.

If we missed anyone, we're certainly sorry, but with so many people there . . . !

* * * *

Question: When is a birthday party especially fun? When the girls go out to dinner and also spend a sleepless night at Carolyn Cooper's home. That's exactly what happened last Friday night on the occasion of Marilyn Wagner's birthday.

There were so many gals wanting to eat at a small local restaurant that they had to eat in shifts, thereby making it even more fun. Gathering at Carolyn's home later for more festivities were:

* * * *

When the young people's organization of the Presbyterian church in MP had their weekly Sunday evening meeting last weekend, they decided to do something different, and so they did! The 'teeners went to Half Moon Bay, played football and other games, ate box lunches—brought by the girls—around a campfire and held their meeting by firelight!

Sounds like fun, doesn't it? Among the mostly - Menlo - Atherton group present were:

Another birthday party, this time a surprise one, was held last Friday evening for Paula Pace of M-A and given by Sue Showalter. The small group of M-A friends participating in the fun were Paula, Sue, Yvonne Angelo, and Jackie Pratt.

* * * *

A get-together was held Saturday night at the Atherton home of Bob Erving, an M-A senior. The guests swam in the pool (mostly boys), ate a barbecue dinner and danced the rest of the enjoyable evening.

The couples included Bob, Dolores Cottrell, Tom Fitch, Joyce Keller, Tom Schmidt, Willene O'Connor, Stan Spiegle, Ellen Fitzsimmons, Bob Elizondo, Liz Gehrky, Berkeley Johnston, Sanny Loofbourow, Ray Paolucci, Phyllis Irby, Bob Reginato, Nancy Heinrich, John Ferguson and Gerry Keely.

Tremendi! Stupendous! Unequalled. Super-colossal! All the adjectives describe one thing—the school spirit of Menlo-Atherton students. It was certainly evident last Friday when we played Lincoln High in football that our spirit was just plain terrific!

Ask any M-A student, they will tell you the same thing!

FOOTBALL FILMS TONIGHT

Stanford football enthusiasts are once again invited by the area's Stanford club to view and review the Saturday game, tonight at 8 p. m. in L'Omelette's banquet room. Films of the Stanford-OSC game

Encinal P-TA Benefit Carnival Is Slated for Halloween Date

There probably won't be too much "trick or treating" around the neighborhood of Encinal school this Halloween, since that evening of small witches and big brooms has been set aside for the P-TA's one and only fund raising event—a carnival, open to everyone.

Festivities will start at 6:30 p. m. in the school, and are scheduled to go on until 10 p. m., with a variety of cupcakes and candy, hotdogs and coffee, candy apples and doughnuts to send away the hunger pangs.

Special features of the carnival will be a horror room, complete with "Black Museum" of hideous faces, a wild animal room, a magician and a series of motion pictures. Other concessions will include a hobby and flower arrangement display, participated in by the pupils, to be judged by county experts.

There will also be an ability test, proceeds from which will go to the Girl Scouts, ring tosses, live goldfish catching, music and many, many games of skill.

Overall chairman for the affair—which proved so successful last year—is Mrs. Donald J. Staples, assisted by the following chairmen and committees:

Mrs. Ray Gelinas and Mrs. Arthur Tibbitts, decoration; Mrs. Raymond Peters, cake booth; Mrs. Charles Larson, films; Mrs. C. Armstrong, wild animal room; Mrs. Harry Mirsky, horror room; Mr. and Mrs. John Roos, bowling.

Mrs. William Corbus, goldfish game; Mrs. George R. Keller and Mrs. Ernest Van Asperen, fish; Mr. and Mrs. Winston Black, water pistol game; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Christensen, ring the duck; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Benedict, penny pitch.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Barbe and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Drescher, hot dog stand; Mrs. M. Christensen, coffee and doughnut committee; Mrs. E. Blanchard, Mrs. C. Young; other refreshments; Carrol Brown, traffic; Mrs. N. Horan, bank and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nelson, prizes. Seybold.

Shirley Caletti Is 'Pilot'-Elect for Wing Scout Unit

Shirley Caletti was elected "pilot," heading a slate of new officers of Wing Scout Troop 6, as the Senior Girl Scout unit began its year of activity with a meeting last week at Menlo-Atherton high school.

Other officers elected include Paula Lawson, copilot; Jean Mort, dispatcher (secretary); Frances Harza, purser (treasurer); Caroline Binsfield, log steward.

The meeting featured, besides election of officers, discussion of plans for the coming year's activities. "Mainliner" among these is to be a flying trip to Sacramento next spring, during which the girls plan to visit the legislature.

Various fundraisings, including a calendar sale next month, will help to finance the trip. The girls, members of the only Wing Scout unit on the Peninsula, plan also to raise money through toy sales, according to Penny (Mrs. E. M.) Edwards, troop leader.

Also discussed were a regional conference, to be held in the spring, and a Senior Scout camp session at Asilomar in March.

Encinal School P-T

Tonight at Encinal school the last of this week's series of parent-teacher get-togethers will be held. The school's fifth grade is scheduled this evening, and the remainder of the classes will meet separately on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next week.

Each classroom at Encinal is now competing for an aquarium, to be awarded to the grade bringing in the largest P-TA membership. One boy in each class has been designated "Freckles," and a spot is added to his face for every new parent signed up by his fellow classmates.

LEGISLATIVE MEETING

Junior League members in this area will be among the group to hear pros and cons of state ballot measures, when the League holds its meeting tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. in Peacock court, Hotel Mark Hopkins.

AAUW GARDEN SECTION

Members of the Menlo-Atherton branch garden section will meet today at 1 p. m. in the home of chairman Mrs. F. E. Fuhrman, 725 Cotton avenue, Menlo Park.

FELLOWSHIP

p. m., and everything starts moving after a grace led by one of the members.

On the senior high side a table is reserved during fall for "The Boys," those football players who come in a little late after practice. Eating, talking and laughing ensues until 6:25 p. m. when the devotions chairman (another 'teenager) steps in front and reads or tells of some inspirational experience, following which, the young people whisper the Lord's Prayer and bow their heads for a moment of devotional silence.

After devotionals, the regular program is presented, which may comprise a film or a talk by some person interested to and interested in young people.

Elective positions in the group have equipped the "fellows" for leadership in school and later life.

Autumn Leafs A Party Offering For Many Menlo Area Couples

By PROXY

The Thursday night Opera Ball and Fol-de-Rol,, sponsored by the Opera Guild attracted several localites, including Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ludwig Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. John Wickett, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weir, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Boren, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sherman, Gwladys Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Selah Chamberlain, Jr.

Among the "to come out soon" debutantes distributing programs were Sally and Sue Kuechler and Patsy Browne. Sally and Sue, daughters of the Henry Keuchler, Jr.'s, with Sherry Douglas, daughter of Mrs. Eldon Tognazzini, will come out formally at a gala party December 19 in the Garden Court of the Palace hotel.

The Henry Sullivan home in Atherton was the Saturday night scene for a mammoth barbeque and dance, honoring their son, Stanley, and Helen Merrick. Approximately 100 'teenagers from Menlo-Atherton filled the house and grounds. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan with the affair were the Robert L. Merricks of Menlo Park, parents of Helen, and Mrs. Rowena Mourning from San Carlos.

The first "strictly social" event for members and cast of the Peninsula Children's theater association will be given Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Graeme MacDonald. According to an Atherton mother and member of the group, Saturday's performance of the "Sorcerer's Apprentice" was a wonder of magic, lighting effects, loud and mysterious noises and ersatz spiders thrown out to children in the audience.

Two parties in the same block took over last Saturday night . . . the Dick Zellerbachs were hosting cocktails before the Circus club dance and the Stan Burbericks were holding a very dressy dinner party.

As for the Comic Strip affair at the Menlo Circus club, it was a real "Rogue's Gallery" of funny paper characters. Nan Libby ("best lady" winner) came as King Aroo, and even shaved off her eyebrows for the occasion; Frank Harper as Space Cadet had borrowed his wife's vacuum cleaner, which he thoroughly wrapped around himself . . . also walked off with prize for "best man."

Judy Zellerbach donned a slinky black cocktail dress, gilded her eyelids, lacquered her hair, dangled a long cigarette holder . . . and became the Dragon Lady; husband Jim, who portrayed himself as Hotshot Charlie, boasted a breastful of his own campaign ribbons. Most popular "costumey" was that of "Newsuit Nan," latest Dick Tracy bedeviler.

Group winners were Hill Billies Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Randick and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Foster, while the Gordon Dennis', as Maggie and Jiggs, took "best couple" honors.

Mrs. John (Rene Pelle) Coffin of Menlo Park displayed some of her ceramic-sculpture pieces last week at the Palace of Fine Arts exhibit in San Francisco.

The tea planned by Ravenswood P-TA for yesterday has been postponed to a later date, according to the president, Mrs. Charles Grover.

The name of Henry L. Bents, 416 Eighth avenue, North Fair Oaks, a nine-time caller at the San Mateo county blood bank, this week heads a list of 54 area residents who made recent "deposits" at the facility.

Bents, who is self-employed as a waterproofing material and wood preserver salesman, has been a resident of this area since 1941.

Before he started making contributions at the San Mateo county blood bank after the close of World War II, he says, he made several other blood bank "deposits."

The list of donors also includes the name of a new Menlo Park member of the "Gallon club": Mrs. R. G. Wolfe, 2063 Gordon avenue, who made an eighth donation recently.

Chiefs Return From Conference

Menlo Park Police Chief George Potter and Atherton Police Chief Leroy Hubbard recently returned from a five-day police chiefs' conference in Los Angeles, attended by more than 1500 persons from all parts of the county.

Working in day-long sessions, the chiefs discussed "every phase" of their common problems, according to Hubbard.

Courts Suspend 2 Drivers' Licenses

Two Menlo Park area residents had their drivers' licenses suspended, under provision of California's financial responsibility laws, and two other persons whose licenses were previously suspended had their permits reinstated.

According to the State department of motor vehicles, those whose licenses were suspended include Robert Russell Pederson, 60 Loyola, Atherton and Jay Paul Reno, 1011 Greenwood drive.

Those whose licenses were reinstated include William Frank Hatzenbehler, 819 17th avenue, North Fair Oaks and Dave Matney, 2274 Poplar avenue, East Palo Alto.
